January Court of Honor

January 29th's meeting was the winter Court of Honor. The ceremony started around 7:15 and many scout families joined for the occasion. Mr. Lew Mohr from the Friends of Scouting program visited and spoke before awards and rank advancements were given out. The list for that is placed at the end of this report. There were two announcements after the Court of Honor, one of those being from Matt Chalupa on the subject of doughnut rewards for high sellers in his Eagle Scout Project fundraiser. I shared a historical nonfiction book called Four Percent by Michael S. Malone with everyone after Matt spoke. This ended the CoH, so everyone enjoyed refreshments and snacks in the back of which there was water, coffee, cookies, chips, and fruit. Quickly however, adults were asked to join in a parent meeting with Dan on trip scheduling and such matters.

Below is the list of awards and rank advancements. Great job everyone!
