

Eagle Court of Honor

Matt Chalupa, Joe Long, and Dan Stauffer

The troop held a very special Eagle Court of Honor Ceremony for three (!) of our scouts. Congratulations to Matt Chalupa, Joe Long, and Dan Stauffer for achieving the highest rank in scouting!

The event was held in Saint Bede's Drexel Center, where one half of the hall was set with tables, food, and displays of scout memories and legacies, while the other half consisted of rows of chairs facing the altar that held ceremonial candles and awards.

We started at quarter after eleven in the morning. It was raining outside, but the sky was still bright. Nearly seventy-five people were in attendance, including R-PA 8th District Representative Mike Fitzpatrick, Scout Executive/Chief Executive Officer Magne Gundersen, and Lew Mohr from the Friends of Scouting. Family, friends, scouts, and other guests were also there, making for a very full and joyous occasion.

The ceremony concluded at half past noon, when the weather had cleared up. Everyone adjourned to chat and have lunch. The hall was very well decorated, and the food was excellent.

This is truly a remarkable event in our troop. Congratulations once more to our new Eagle Scouts, and good job, scouts, in holding the ceremony.
